The Project

Members of the Alder King Planning Consultancy team were appointed by BAE Systems to promote the 170 ha Former Royal Ordnance Factory at Puriton, Bridgwater through the new development plan system. This project has included the submission of representations including a Sustainability Appraisal to the Draft South West Regional Spatial Strategy. Subsequently the team were invited to appear at the Regional Spatial Strategy Examination in Public and submitted a Witness Statement in support of this appearance. Representations promoting a strategy that would support the release of the site have also been submitted to the Sedgemoor District Council Core Strategy Issues and Options Paper.

Members of the Team were also appointed by the University of Bristol to promote landholdings of approximately 100 ha in the vicinity of Long Ashton, Bristol through the new development plan system. This project included the submission of representations to the Submission Draft South West Regional Spatial Strategy promoting revisions that would support release of this Green Belt land. Representations have also been submitted to the Bristol City Council Core Strategy Issues and Options Paper.

The Team were also appointed by O&H Properties to promote the allocation and release for development of land at Sturminster Road, Brislington, Bristol. To date this has involved the submission of representations to the Bristol Core Strategy Issues and Options Paper promoting a strategy that would support the allocation and release of the site in future Development Plan Documents.
